John Robertson, of the Hanley Cattle company, who has been spending the winter in Portland, was here a few days last week looking over the city. He says the past winter has been a bad one for the cattle feeders and it will require some time for the business to get on good lines again.

Cattle men who have been shipping to Portland lately find quite a difference between the reported prices and those actually paid. The quotation is made on a wash sale, between some of the dealers, but the actual price is about a cent lower and it makes it impossible for buyers to get cattle and ship them under those conditions without losing money.

GENERAL VILLA FRIENDLY

Rebel Commander Anxious to Placate His American Friends.

El Paso, Tex.—The international political situation cleared greatly as affecting the status of the rebel government and that of the United States when General Francisco Villa, who arrived at Juarez repeated his declaration that he would not be drawn into a war with the United States, particularly as that would serve only to draw the Huerta chestnuts out of the fire. Villa said that Carranza's note had been misunderstood and that the first chief was as friendly as he was to the United States.

For Governor.

GUS C. MOSER
Republican Primaries, May 15

He Voted Against The New Tax Law and Stands for Reduction of Taxes Payable Semi-Annually Without Penalty.

Economy, Efficiency--Dignified Law Enforcement.

I was born and reared upon a farm in Buffalo County, Wis.; educated myself by my own efforts, and have practiced law in Portland since June, 1894. Have always taken an active part in public affairs, and have held several official positions. I stand by my record as State senator at the last session of the legislature. I worked and voted against the new tax law, and favor a law making taxes payable semi-annually without penalty.

Only five of the laws passed at that session were referred to the people by referendum petitions; four of these the people approved by overwhelming majorities, and I voted for them; the fifth was almost as badly defeated, and I had voted against it in the legislature.

I worked and voted for Senator Maloney's minimum wage bill for women, providing for an impartial commission to fix the maximum hours of labor and the minimum amount of pay.

I favor a similar law providing for an impartial commission without compensation, to fix the maximum hours of labor for men in the various industrial occupations; this in preference to a flat eight hour law.

I favor good roads legislation with state aid, so that we may have cheaper transportation from the farms and producers in every direction.

I favor the reduction of taxes by consolidation of various commissions, or the abolishment thereof, and placing their duties into the hands of the state Board, and by the reduction of the expenses of conducting the various departments of the state.

I favor suitable appropriations for our State Educational institutions and the continued improvement of our great bulwark—the public school system. And above all I favor the vigorous and efficient enforcement of all the criminal statutes, including those regulating and prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors, and this I shall do with firmness and impartiality. The rich, the poor, the great, the humble, the capitalist, the laborer, the churchman and the liquor dealer shall be measured by the same standard and each shall answer for his own acts.

Newspaper Man Seeks Office.

M. E. Miller, editor of the St. Helena Mist, St. Helena, who is a candidate for state labor commissioner is making an aggressive campaign. While Mr. Miller is a republican candidate he rises above politics, and hopes to take the office which he seeks, away from political domination making it independent in every sense, a condition which should exist in such a position. Mr. Miller stands high as a newspaperman, and possesses all the requisites for the capable and just administration of the affairs of that important office.—Astoria Daily Budget, April 23.
